Magdeburg (dpa) - Magdeburg's ballet director Gonzalo Galguera receives the Italian dance award "The Golden Nutcracker" (Lo Schiaccianoci d'oro).

The Magdeburg Theater announced on Thursday that the award will be presented by the International Festival of Dance and the Different Dance Styles in Nepi.

Galguera received an award for his life's work in the "Outstanding Achievement of Theaters around the World" category.

On July 3, the ballet director should receive the award at a gala.

Galguera will also receive the Sicilian dance award "Premio delle Eccellenze della Danza" from Noto (Syracuse) in August.

This has been awarded since 2017 and honors Galguera for his achievements in the field of international choreography.

The prize should be awarded on August 4th in the San Lorenzo Ricevimenti arena.

Galguera has been a member of the jury at Italian dance competitions several times, it said.

The German-Cuban ballet director and chief choreographer of the Magdeburg Ballet has been since the 2006/07 season.
